

COLIN J. CURRAN

PROFILE

I bring excitement and energy to any organization with a willingness to learn new skills.

I played three years of competitive club volleyball which improved my skills as a player and team member. My experience with the sports club has shown me the benefits of competition, success through teamwork, and overcoming adversity.

I am confident my skills, commitment, and energy will be a great benefit to my next employer, and I am looking forward to being a productive member of the team!
